CAPE TOWN TOURS

CAPE PENINSULA EXPERIENCE (FULL-DAY)

We start the tour by passing first at our Cape Town's most magnificent Landmark "Table Mountain " which is not just the tabletop but part of a mountain range that stretches from the central business district down the Africa westernmost part of the continent. This tour is perfect as a Cape Town orientation experience, as we follow the perimeter of the Table Mountain range, going full circle around the mountain, passing incredible seascapes, and taking in some of the most incredible views along the way. There is an incredible pass called Chapman's Peak along the Atlantic Ocean on the way to Noordhoek. We get to pass beautiful little suburban-like Kalk Bay, Fishhoek, and the naval Simonstown. There is the Cape Point Nature Reserve which is part of Table Mountain National Park, where you get to see the Cape of Good Hope which is the Westernmost of the African Continent. They are African penguins that hate the cold, just outside of Simonstown, and there are baboons and some Zebras, in addition to some of the most incredible fynbos and plant biodiversity.
